

GABRIEL ANDREESCU
RIGHT-WING EXTREMISM IN ROMANIA

GABRIEL ANDREESCU

---

RIGHT-WING
EXTREMISM
IN ROMANIA

---

CENTRUL DE
RESURSE PENTRU
DIVERSITATE
ETNOCULTURALĂ

ETHNOCULTURAL
DIVERSITY
RESOURCE CENTER

CLUJ, 2003

RIGHT-WING EXTREMISM IN ROMANIA

Cluj-Napoca: Fundația CRDE, 2003

128 p.; 16x23,5 cm

ISBN: 973-86239-0-1

I. Andreescu Gabriel

©ETHNOCULTURAL
DiVERSITY
RESOURCE
CENTER
Cluj-Napoca, 2003

Series: SYNTHESSES

Coordinated by Gábor Ádám and Levente Salat

Volume 4: RIGHT-WING EXTREMISM IN ROMANIA

Referenced by Lucian Nastașă

Translated by Mária Kovács

Proofreading by Michael Tchudi and Monica Robotin

Index by Monica Robotin

Layout by Elemér Könczey

Cover and series design by Elemér Könczey

---

TABLE OF CONTENTS

---

Acknowledgements .....	7
I. The Meaning of "Extremism" .....	9
II. Extremist Discourses, Ideologies, and Allegiances .....	13
Extreme Right Movements. The Legionnaire Background
Revisionism and the Cult of Marshall Antonescu
The Cult of Marshall Antonescu
The National Written Press and "High Culture" in the Promotion of Violent Anti-Minority, Anti-Multicultural Anti-Modern and Xenophobe
Discourse
III. The Main Extremist Actors: the Romanian Hearth, the Party for the Natio-
nal Unity of Romanians (PUNR), and the Greater Romania Party (PRM) .....	29
The Greater Romania Party
The 1999 Tentative Coup
IV. Extremist Tendencies within the Romanian Orthodox Church .....	35
The Romanian Orthodox Church as a Medium for Extremism /Fundamentalism
The Romanian Orthodox Church and the Contestation of the Rule of Law
Submission of the Political Class to the Orthodox Pressure
Historical Connections to the Legionnaire Movement
The Army and the Orthodox Church
V. Laws and Official Bodies for Combating Extremism .....	47
Anti-Extremist Norms
Laws for the Protection of National Minorities
The Anti-Discrimination System
The Ratification of Relevant International Legislation
The Enforcement of Available Laws and Norms
VI. Factors that Encourage Extremism .....	55
1. Romania as a "Weak State"
1.1. The Romanian Intelligence service and the Weakness of the Democratic State
1.2. The Limits of Central Power at Local Level
2. Mistrust of the Population in the Institutions of Democracy
3. Lack of Transparency
4. Poverty

5. Corruption
5.1 Structural Corruption
6. Connection between Poverty, Corruption and Extremism
VII. Actors Opposing Extremism in Romania .....	71
Internal Political Forces
Romania's Participation in International Life, as a Major Factor of Limiting Extremism
Synergy
VIII. Conclusions .....	79
Legislative Measures
Measures Concerning the Rule of Law
Public Policy Measures
The Attitude of the International Community
Annexes
Annex I .....	85
The Romanian Intelligence Service (SRI) - an Institution that Promotes Ultranationalism
SRI Reports
The Anti-Hungarian Challenge in the Fall of 2001
Evaluation of the Report of the SRI Control Commission
Conclusions
Annex II .....	99
Emergency Ordinance no. 31 Regarding the Prohibition of Fascist, Racist and Xenophobe Organizations and Symbols
Comparison with Other Legal Norms
The Cult of Guilty Personalities and Regulations of the Public Space
Hate Speech and Distinctions / Non-Distinctions of Emergency Ordinance no. 31
Negationism
Negationism in an Ex-Communist Country
Is It Necessary to Adopt an Anti-Negationist Law?
Conclusions
Index .....	117